

Alexandria Gazette.

TUESDAY EVENING, JUNE 28.

LOCAL MATTERS.

Sun and Tide Table.

Sun rises tomorrow at 4:26 and sets 7:29. High water at 12:22 a. m. and 12:49 p. m.

Weather Probabilities.

For this section shows this afternoon and partly cloudy tonight and Wednesday; not much change in temperature; light west to northwest winds.

AERONAUTICAL ENGINEERS.

W. L. Fairchild, a prominent New York engineer, associated with Col. John Jacob Astor, and one of the most experienced aviators, visited Alexandria yesterday, placing an order with the Emerson Engine Company for one of the most powerful and lightest weight aeronautical engines ever built for a flying machine.

Dr. William Christmas, of Washington, and an expert scientist along aviation lines and builder of the famous flying machine the "Red Bird II," gave his order today for a duplicate of Mr. Fairchild's machine.

Mr. Rexford Smith, of Washington, who has gotten out two successful aeroplanes and who is prominent in aviation circles, from a patent standpoint, has placed his order with the Emerson Engine Company for a flying machine engine of very high power, countermanding his order for the Curtiss engine after seeing the new engines just developed by the Emerson Engine Company. It is predicted by many of the expert aviators, who have recently visited Alexandria and inspected and compared the engines produced here with those of foreign manufacture, that they surpass anything made in any other part of the world, and that Alexandria will soon become noted for the product of aviation engines and for motor boats.

The Emerson Engine Company has just completed an addition to the building at the corner of Prince and Fairfax streets and are filling same with machinery in order to take care of the new branch which they have added in the manufacture of engines for flying machines.

THE NOLAN TRIAL.

Michael A. Nolan was placed on trial in the Circuit Court for Alexandria this morning, Judge J. B. T. Thornton presiding, for the killing of Robert Murphy, jr., of this city. The crime occurred June 17 at a tramps' camp on the outskirts of the city. Nolan stabbed Murphy in the throat with a pocket knife, the latter dying in a few minutes. Nolan shortly thereafter surrendered to the police of this city. Nolan is represented by Attorneys Moncreux, Tebbels and Gaine, and Commonwealth's Attorney C. Randall Mackey, assisted by Commonwealth's Attorney Samuel G. Brent of this city, is conducting the prosecution.

Eight witnesses, including Chief Goods, from this city were summoned to testify in the case.

When the case was called this morning the defense filed a plea in abatement, alleging that a member of the grand jury who has indicted Nolan, Mr. I. W. Burrill, was a constable. Another grand jury was immediately summoned and Nolan again indicted.

Counsel on both sides then made their opening statements, after which the taking of testimony began.

Dr. Moore, coroner of this city, who made an examination of Murphy after he had been killed, was the first witness. From the nature of Murphy's wound Dr. Moore testified that it would have been impossible for Murphy to have run from the spot where he was cut to that at which his body was found. Court then took a recess for lunch.

JUMPED OVERBOARD.

Some excitement was caused on the wharf of the Norfolk and Washington Steamboat Company about 7:30 o'clock yesterday evening when the gangplank of the steamer Southland was broken by the weight of an Emerson steam pump which was being placed aboard the steamer. Several deckhands narrowly escaped injury and a colored man named Al Wilson, of this city, who was aiding in loading the steamer, jumped overboard. He was soon rescued. The pump is on its way to Oregon.

SCHOOL CLOSING.

The closing exercises of the Virginia Home School were held Friday morning, at the home of the principal, Miss Swain. The children sang choruses, and gave recitations. Instrumental solos were rendered by Miss Elizabeth Howell and May Mander. Vocal solo, May Mander, and duet by Eleanor McElroy and Lester Brenner. After distribution of prizes, the school marched to the dining room where a bountiful collation was spread, which was much enjoyed by all the children.

FUNERAL.

The funeral of the late Benjamin Sanduan, whose body was found alongside of the Southern Railway tracks a short distance south of Manassas last Sunday morning, took place from the residence of his brother-in-law, Mr. Leroy Beach, jr., 126 Prince street, this afternoon. The services were conducted by Rev. Father Kelly, and the pallbearers were Messrs. Harry Massey, John Downey, Robert Grimes, Herbert Pelton, John Mumford and Stephen Davis.

HEAVY RAIN.

There was a light rainfall shortly before six o'clock yesterday evening. Later thick clouds formed in the western and northern heavens and about nine o'clock there were heavy downpours, accompanied by considerable thunder and lightning. The storm raged for about an hour, but the lightning continued to flash until nearly midnight.

ROYAL ARCADE.

An interesting meeting of Alexandria Council, No. 627, Royal Arcanum, will be held tonight in Sarcophagus Hall building, Grand Regent Henry K. Field, Vice Grand Regent Minnie Lee Folkes, Past Grand Regent W. T. Dabney, and Deputy Grand Regent A. D. Jackson will pay an official visit to the council.

Lycium excursion tonight 7 o'clock. Come go along and have a jolly time.

WILL PROBATED.

The will of the late Frank S. Harper was admitted to probate today. The deceased left an estate valued at $100,000. He directs that $150 be invested for keeping up the family lot in the Presbyterian Church cemetery. To his stepsons, H. L. and R. R. H. Todd, he left to the former his set of carbuncle jewelry and chain, to the latter his watch and chain; to M. W. Dunnington $1,000; to the Alexandria Hospital $1,000; to the Second Presbyterian Church $2,000. To R. M. Graham, in trust for Margaret Mitchell Harper, wife of deceased, he leaves his residence, No. 509 Prince street, and the contents and $60,000, the house to be her home and the money to be invested and the interest paid to her during her life. At her death the house and her life are to go to his nieces, the daughters of his deceased brother, John Harper, of Natchez, Miss. To R. M. Graham, in trust for his sister, Miss Margaret D. Harper, the deceased leaves house, No. 218 south Washington street, and $15,000, the money to be invested and the interest paid to her. At her death this also is to go to his nieces, the daughters of his late brother, John Harper. The residue of his estate he leaves to his nieces, the daughters of his deceased brother. Mr. Harper named his wife, Mrs. Margaret M. H. Harper, executrix, and Messrs. E. R. Swetnam and R. M. Graham executors, directing that no inventory or appraisal be made of his estate. Mr. Swetnam declined to serve and today Mrs. Harper and Mr. Graham qualified. The will is dated January 24, 1909.

PERSONAL.

Mr. Charles H. McKnight who has been visiting his former home this city, left yesterday for New York.

Mrs. S. E. Starnell who has been visiting relatives in Richmond, has returned to this city.

The board of law examiners, which had been in session in Roanoke since Wednesday morning, yesterday completed its work and made public the names of the young men who successfully passed the examinations, showing that 133 out of 160 applicants have been declared qualified to practice and are entitled to certificates. Among the successful candidates were Mr. Algeron C. Chalmers and Mr. W. Worth Smith, of this city.

Rev. John Cavanaugh, of Alexandria, preached an open air sermon at the site of the old freight depot of the R. F. & P. R. R. at Fredericksburg yesterday. On Sunday he occupied the pulpit of St. John Church, Spotsylvania county. Mr. Cavanaugh is the guest of Mr. C. H. Shaw, of Massaponax.

Miss Miriam White, and Mr. Alba Walkup, both of Richmond, were married in Washington yesterday. Rev. C. E. Guthrie officiated. The wedding party was accompanied by the bride's uncle, Mr. Wythe White, of this city and Mr. Walter Hawkins, of Florida. The friends of Commander James H. Reid are very grateful to the Hon. C. C. Carlin for his fine generalship in engineering his bill through Congress for the retirement of Lieut. Commander James H. Reid, with rank of commander, to the use of Senator Martin for his very efficient aid.

Mr. H. Brooke Arnold and Miss Catharine Ione Gorham, sister of Mr. George A. Gorham, will be married in September.

Eight witnesses, including Chief Goods, from this city were summoned to testify in the case.

When the case was called this morning the defense filed a plea in abatement, alleging that a member of the grand jury who has indicted Nolan, Mr. I. W. Burrill, was a constable. Another grand jury was immediately summoned and Nolan again indicted.

Counsel on both sides then made their opening statements, after which the taking of testimony began.

Dr. Moore, coroner of this city, who made an examination of Murphy after he had been killed, was the first witness. From the nature of Murphy's wound Dr. Moore testified that it would have been impossible for Murphy to have run from the spot where he was cut to that at which his body was found. Court then took a recess for lunch.

JUMPED OVERBOARD.

Some excitement was caused on the wharf of the Norfolk and Washington Steamboat Company about 7:30 o'clock yesterday evening when the gangplank of the steamer Southland was broken by the weight of an Emerson steam pump which was being placed aboard the steamer. Several deckhands narrowly escaped injury and a colored man named Al Wilson, of this city, who was aiding in loading the steamer, jumped overboard. He was soon rescued. The pump is on its way to Oregon.

SCHOOL CLOSING.

The closing exercises of the Virginia Home School were held Friday morning, at the home of the principal, Miss Swain. The children sang choruses, and gave recitations. Instrumental solos were rendered by Miss Elizabeth Howell and May Mander. Vocal solo, May Mander, and duet by Eleanor McElroy and Lester Brenner. After distribution of prizes, the school marched to the dining room where a bountiful collation was spread, which was much enjoyed by all the children.

FUNERAL.

The funeral of the late Benjamin Sanduan, whose body was found alongside of the Southern Railway tracks a short distance south of Manassas last Sunday morning, took place from the residence of his brother-in-law, Mr. Leroy Beach, jr., 126 Prince street, this afternoon. The services were conducted by Rev. Father Kelly, and the pallbearers were Messrs. Harry Massey, John Downey, Robert Grimes, Herbert Pelton, John Mumford and Stephen Davis.

HEAVY RAIN.

There was a light rainfall shortly before six o'clock yesterday evening. Later thick clouds formed in the western and northern heavens and about nine o'clock there were heavy downpours, accompanied by considerable thunder and lightning. The storm raged for about an hour, but the lightning continued to flash until nearly midnight.

ROYAL ARCADE.

An interesting meeting of Alexandria Council, No. 627, Royal Arcanum, will be held tonight in Sarcophagus Hall building, Grand Regent Henry K. Field, Vice Grand Regent Minnie Lee Folkes, Past Grand Regent W. T. Dabney, and Deputy Grand Regent A. D. Jackson will pay an official visit to the council.

Lycium excursion tonight 7 o'clock. Come go along and have a jolly time.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The City Council meets tonight.

Look! Look! There goes the crowd on the Lyceum excursion—let's go too.

Mr. Harvey Robinson will leave tonight for the White Sulphur Springs. The three-masted schooner Harold Crusin is at W. A. Smoot & Co's wharf where she will be loaded with railroad ties for a northern port.

The special meeting of Alexandria-Washington Lodge of Masons which has been held on Tuesday night for some time will be discontinued for the present.

Mr. Joseph Weingart, an employee of the Portner Brewery, was seriously injured yesterday by a barrel of beer falling upon him. He was sent to the Alexandria Hospital today.

The only case before the Police Court this morning was that of Helen Washington, colored, charged with disorderly conduct. She was dismissed.

Albert A. Drager, formerly of this city but now a successful merchant of Baltimore, plans a handsome department store to be erected at the southeast corner of East and Saratoga streets in the latter city.

Desk Sergeant J. A. Manuel, of the Roanoke police department, passed through this city this afternoon with James Davis and Harry L. Kenney, both colored, in custody. They had been arrested in Washington on the charge of housebreaking and larceny in Roanoke.

That lazy kid went down on the Lyceum excursion this morning. Let's go down tonight and we'll see what attracted him.

Sturgeon, halibut, sea bass, mackerel, catfish, rock, salt water trout, for sale by Geo. E. Price & Co. in market balance of this week.

Select Soft Shell Crabs on toast, and Deviled Crabs at Spinks's Cafe, Prince and Royal streets.

The whole family went on the Lyceum excursion today, so we will have to go down on the 7 o'clock boat and join them.

MARLEY ENCAMPMENT.

A meeting of Marley Encampment No. 6, I. O. O. F., was held last night at which the royal purple degree was conferred upon two candidates. The following officers were elected at the meeting: Chief patriarch, M. S. Keene; senior warden, W. A. Conway; high priest, H. E. Arnold; junior warden, J. T. Watkins; scribe, R. M. Watkins; treasurer, P. M. Bradshaw. At the close of the meeting seasonal refreshments were served.

CARDINALS WIN AGAIN.

The Cardinal A. C. downed the Strayers Business College yesterday on the fair grounds by the score of 14 to 6. This makes the second time the stenographers have met defeat by the Cardinals this season.

Needle From Foot to Knee.

Bristol, Pa., June 28.—Nineteen years ago Mrs. James Bossler, of Dorchester street, while walking barefooted in her bedroom stepped on a needle. The sharp bit of steel entered her foot and broke off.

A week ago she felt a peculiar pain in the region of her knee, and finally a red spot appeared. Yesterday she scratched her knee with a pin, and the needle, which had worked its way up from the foot, broke through the skin.

Dirigibles for the Sleepless.

New York, June 28.—Sleepless people attention! Be of good cheer! A man to rescue you from restless nights is at hand! The rescuer is Sidney F. Beckwith, a New York club man, and literary dilettante. The remedy is one of the simplest ever proposed, merely take a ride in a dirigible balloon.

Beckwith tried the recipe while sojourning in Louisiana, and it worked like a charm. Every time he took an aerial cruise he found that he slept like a log the following night.

The beauty of the remedy lies in the fact that any sort of dirigible will do—Zeppelin, Gross or Parseval type, as well as any of the several American makes.

Beckwith says if it is foolish to pay more than $50,000 for your dirigible.

Bandit's Prayer for Forgiveness.

Lynn, Mass., June 28.—"Mother forgive," is the substance of a plea made today by Wasili Ivankowski, one of the three bandits who Saturday killed Thomas Landreagan and Policeman Carroll here. Ivankowski, indicted for murder, has been taken to Salem jail. Today, in the cell where he was held while here, was found a letter, written in Russian on a scrap of paper, which reveals the dying of the last hope in the desperate bandit. It was as follows:

"Dear mother, brothers and sisters: I send you my last regards and beg you not to cry for me, and lose your strength, as you have not it to lose. I write now that I have been arrested in quick time and will be sentenced to death, but for what cause I will not write. I bid you farewell, kissing you though not in person. Please forgive me not obeying you. Now it is too late."

Andy Nelson, another of the yeggs, is still alive in the Lynn Hospital, though he may die at any hour.

"Joe," the third of the bandits, who was shot dead was buried today without other identification.

GIRL SHOTS LOVER.

Rosy Perrino, 15 years of age, rejected the persistent advances of Antonio Rossi with a revolver at Chicago yesterday and Rossi is believed to be dying of a bullet wound in the head.

"He has pursued me for a year," sobbed the girl when taken to the police station. "Every morning he followed me to my work. Last winter he broke into our house, knocked down my mother, and renewed his demand that I marry him. I had him arrested and put under bond to cease his annoyances; but nevertheless he had followed me to and from my work daily." Rossi, it is said, followed Miss Perrino yesterday to the feather factory, where she is employed. As she entered the building the girl drew a revolver and fired twice.

J. and T. Cousin's Fine Lustral Coat and Black Russian Lustina Pumps and Oxford, Weld and Turn's price $5.00; our price $4.00. J. A. Marshall & Bro., 422 King street.

Glance over the list of High Grade Shoes sold exclusively by us: J. & T. Cousin's, Queen Quality, Red Cross, Linder Shoe Co., N. Hess & Bro. (The Hess), Taylor & Co. (Tailor Made) Brocton Co-Operative Co., Walk Over, Regal, Excelsior Shoe Co., and many others. J. A. Marshall & Bro., 422 King street.

Merry makers tonight on the Lyceum excursion. Let's join their club and help make others forget their troubles.

Lame shoulder is almost invariably caused by rheumatism of the muscles and yields quickly to the free application of Chamberlain's Liniment. This liniment is not only prompt but effective, but is not only agreeable to use. Sold by W. F. Creighton and Richard Gibson.

FOR RENT. A nice nine room HOUSE, partly furnished with first-class furniture; all modern improvements; a young couple with no children preferred. Rent reasonable. For particulars apply to Clerk No. 11, Bernheimer's store, No. 200 King street, between 7 and 12 a. m. or 1 and 6 p. m. Remember this is a bargain to the right party. j27 19

DEATHS IN RACE RIOT.

Meagre details have reached Jackson, Miss., of a race riot near Harrisville, Simpson county, on Sunday, which has cost two lives and from which more trouble is expected.

Armed posses of several hundred white men are now in search of negro fugitives.

One white man, Luther Buckley, and a negro named Jones have been killed. The trouble started when two negroes quarreled with a white farmer named McDonnell, and left him lying unconscious from a blow on the head.

A posse started in pursuit of the colored men. Shortly after dark Sunday while one of the searching parties was riding along the public road, fire was opened by the fugitives, and Luther Buckley, a young farmer, was shot dead from his horse.

The posse gave immediate pursuit and the negro Jones was captured and shot to death. Later his brother and another, said to have aided the fugitives to escape, were captured. Conflicting reports as to the fate of these two have been received in Jackson one being that they were spirited away by officers who were determined to prevent mob violence and another is to the effect that their captors carried them off to the woods, where a double lynching took place.

The posse gave immediate pursuit and the negro Jones was captured and shot to death. Later his brother and another, said to have aided the fugitives to escape, were captured. Conflicting reports as to the fate of these two have been received in Jackson one being that they were spirited away by officers who were determined to prevent mob violence and another is to the effect that their captors carried them off to the woods, where a double lynching took place.

The posse gave immediate pursuit and the negro Jones was captured and shot to death. Later his brother and another, said to have aided the fugitives to escape, were captured. Conflicting reports as to the fate of these two have been received in Jackson one being that they were spirited away by officers who were determined to prevent mob violence and another is to the effect that their captors carried them off to the woods, where a double lynching took place.

The posse gave immediate pursuit and the negro Jones was captured and shot to death. Later his brother and another, said to have aided the fugitives to escape, were captured. Conflicting reports as to the fate of these two have been received in Jackson one being that they were spirited away by officers who were determined to prevent mob violence and another is to the effect that their captors carried them off to the woods, where a double lynching took place.

The posse gave immediate pursuit and the negro Jones was captured and shot to death. Later his brother and another, said to have aided the fugitives to escape, were captured. Conflicting reports as to the fate of these two have been received in Jackson one being that they were spirited away by officers who were determined to prevent mob violence and another is to the effect that their captors carried them off to the woods, where a double lynching took place.

The posse gave immediate pursuit and the negro Jones was captured and shot to death. Later his brother and another, said to have aided the fugitives to escape, were captured. Conflicting reports as to the fate of these two have been received in Jackson one being that they were spirited away by officers who were determined to prevent mob violence and another is to the effect that their captors carried them off to the woods, where a double lynching took place.

The posse gave immediate pursuit and the negro Jones was captured and shot to death. Later his brother and another, said to have aided the fugitives to escape, were captured. Conflicting reports as to the fate of these two have been received in Jackson one being that they were spirited away by officers who were determined to prevent mob violence and another is to the effect that their captors carried them off to the woods, where a double lynching took place.

The posse gave immediate pursuit and the negro Jones was captured and shot to death. Later his brother and another, said to have aided the fugitives to escape, were captured. Conflicting reports as to the fate of these two have been received in Jackson one being that they were spirited away by officers who were determined to prevent mob violence and another is to the effect that their captors carried them off to the woods, where a double lynching took place.

The posse gave immediate pursuit and the negro Jones was captured and shot to death. Later his brother and another, said to have aided the fugitives to escape, were captured. Conflicting reports as to the fate of these two have been received in Jackson one being that they were spirited away by officers who were determined to prevent mob violence and another is to the effect that their captors carried them off to the woods, where a double lynching took place.

The posse gave immediate pursuit and the negro Jones was captured and shot to death. Later his brother and another, said to have aided the fugitives to escape, were captured. Conflicting reports as to the fate of these two have been received in Jackson one being that they were spirited away by officers who were determined to prevent mob violence and another is to the effect that their captors carried them off to the woods, where a double lynching took place.

The posse gave immediate pursuit and the negro Jones was captured and shot to death. Later his brother and another, said to have aided the fugitives to escape, were captured. Conflicting reports as to the fate of these two have been received in Jackson one being that they were spirited away by officers who were determined to prevent mob violence and another is to the effect that their captors carried them off to the woods, where a double lynching took place.

The posse gave immediate pursuit and the negro Jones was captured and shot to death. Later his brother and another, said to have aided the fugitives to escape, were captured. Conflicting reports as to the fate of these two have been received in Jackson one being that they were spirited away by officers who were determined to prevent mob violence and another is to the effect that their captors carried them off to the woods, where a double lynching took place.

The posse gave immediate pursuit and the negro Jones was captured and shot to death. Later his brother and another, said to have aided the fugitives to escape, were captured. Conflicting reports as to the fate of these two have been received in Jackson one being that they were spirited away by officers who were determined to prevent mob violence and another is to the effect that their captors carried them off to the woods, where a double lynching took place.

The posse gave immediate pursuit and the negro Jones was captured and shot to death. Later his brother and another, said to have aided the fugitives to escape, were captured. Conflicting reports as to the fate of these two have been received in Jackson one being that they were spirited away by officers who were determined to prevent mob violence and another is to the effect that their captors carried them off to the woods, where a double lynching took place.

The posse gave immediate pursuit and the negro Jones was captured and shot to death. Later his brother and another, said to have aided the fugitives to escape, were captured. Conflicting reports as to the fate of these two have been received in Jackson one being that they were spirited away by officers who were determined to prevent mob violence and another is to the effect that their captors carried them off to the woods, where a double lynching took place.

The posse gave immediate pursuit and the negro Jones was captured and shot to death. Later his brother and another, said to have aided the fugitives to escape, were captured. Conflicting reports as to the fate of these two have been received in Jackson one being that they were spirited away by officers who were determined to prevent mob violence and another is to the effect that their captors carried them off to the woods, where a double lynching took place.

The posse gave immediate pursuit and the negro Jones was captured and shot to death. Later his brother and another, said to have aided the fugitives to escape, were captured. Conflicting reports as to the fate of these two have been received in Jackson one being that they were spirited away by officers who were determined to prevent mob violence and another is to the effect that their captors carried them off to the woods, where a double lynching took place.

The posse gave immediate pursuit and the negro Jones was captured and shot to death. Later his brother and another, said to have aided the fugitives to escape, were captured. Conflicting reports as to the fate of these two have been received in Jackson one being that they were spirited away by officers who were determined to prevent mob violence and another is to the effect that their captors carried them off to the woods, where a double lynching took place.

The posse gave immediate pursuit and the negro Jones was captured and shot to death. Later his brother and another, said to have aided the fugitives to escape, were captured. Conflicting reports as to the fate of these two have been received in Jackson one being that they were spirited away by officers who were determined to prevent mob violence and another is to the effect that their captors carried them off to the woods, where a double lynching took place.

The posse gave immediate pursuit and the negro Jones was captured and shot to death. Later his brother and another, said to have aided the fugitives to escape, were captured. Conflicting reports as to the fate of these two have been received in Jackson one being that they were spirited away by officers who were determined to prevent mob violence and another is to the effect that their captors carried them off to the woods, where a double lynching took place.

The posse gave immediate pursuit and the negro Jones was captured and shot to death. Later his brother and another, said to have aided the fugitives to escape, were captured. Conflicting reports as to the fate of these two have been received in Jackson one being that they were spirited away by officers who were determined to prevent mob violence and another is to the effect that their captors carried them off to the woods, where a double lynching took place.

The posse gave immediate pursuit and the negro Jones was captured and shot to death. Later his brother and another, said to have aided the fugitives to escape, were captured. Conflicting reports as to the fate of these two have been received in Jackson one being that they were spirited away by officers who were determined to prevent mob violence and another is to the effect that their captors carried them off to the woods, where a double lynching took place.

The posse gave immediate pursuit and the negro Jones was captured and shot to death. Later his brother and another, said to have aided the fugitives to escape, were captured. Conflicting reports as to the fate of these two have been received in Jackson one being that they were spirited away by officers who were determined to prevent mob violence and another is to the effect that their captors carried them off to the woods, where a double lynching took place.

The posse gave immediate pursuit and the negro Jones was captured and shot to death. Later his brother and another, said to have aided the fugitives to escape, were captured. Conflicting reports as to the fate of these two have been received in Jackson one being that they were spirited away by officers who were determined to prevent mob violence and another is to the effect that their captors carried them off to the woods, where a double lynching took place.

The posse gave immediate pursuit and the negro Jones was captured and shot to death. Later his brother and another, said to have aided the fugitives to escape, were captured. Conflicting reports as to the fate of these two have been received in Jackson one being that they were spirited away by officers who were determined to prevent mob violence and another is to the effect that their captors carried them off to the woods, where a double lynching took place.

The posse gave immediate pursuit and the negro Jones was captured and shot to death. Later his brother and another, said to have aided the fugitives to escape, were captured. Conflicting reports as to the fate of these two have been received in Jackson one being that they were spirited away by officers who were determined to prevent mob violence and another is to the effect that their captors carried them off to the woods, where a double lynching took place.

The posse gave immediate pursuit and the negro Jones was captured and shot to death. Later his brother and another, said to have aided the fugitives to escape, were captured. Conflicting reports as to the fate of these two have been received in Jackson one being that they were spirited away by officers who were determined to prevent mob violence and another is to the effect that their captors carried them off to the woods, where a double lynching took place.

The posse gave immediate pursuit and the negro Jones was captured and shot to death. Later his brother and another, said to have aided the fugitives to escape, were captured. Conflicting reports as to the fate of these two have been received in Jackson one being that they were spirited away by officers who were determined to prevent mob violence and another is to the effect that their captors carried them off to the woods, where a double lynching took place.

The posse gave immediate pursuit and the negro Jones was captured and shot to death. Later his brother and another, said to have aided the fugitives to escape, were captured. Conflicting reports as to the fate of these two have been received in Jackson one being that they were spirited away by officers who were determined to prevent mob violence and another is to the effect that their captors carried them off to the woods, where a double lynching took place.

The posse gave immediate pursuit and the negro Jones was captured and shot to death. Later his brother and another, said to have aided the fugitives to escape, were captured. Conflicting reports as to the fate of these two have been received in Jackson one being that they were spirited away by officers who were determined to prevent mob violence and another is to the effect that their captors carried them off to the woods, where a double lynching took place.

The posse gave immediate pursuit and the negro Jones was captured and shot to death. Later his brother and another, said to have aided the fugitives to escape, were captured. Conflicting reports as to the fate of these two have been received in Jackson one being that they were spirited away by officers who were determined to prevent mob violence and another is to the effect that their captors carried them off to the woods, where a double lynching took place.

The posse gave immediate pursuit and the negro Jones was captured and shot to death. Later his brother and another, said to have aided the fugitives to escape, were captured. Conflicting reports as to the fate of these two have been received in Jackson one being that they were spirited away by officers who were determined to prevent mob violence and another is to the effect that their captors carried them off to the woods, where a double lynching took place.

The posse gave immediate pursuit and the negro Jones was captured and shot to death. Later his brother and another, said to have aided the fugitives to escape, were captured. Conflicting reports as to the fate of these two have been received in Jackson one being that they were spirited away by officers who were determined to prevent mob violence and another is to the effect that their captors carried them off to the woods, where a double lynching took place.

The posse gave immediate pursuit and the negro Jones was captured and shot to death. Later his brother and another, said to have aided the fugitives to escape, were captured. Conflicting reports as to the fate of these two have been received in Jackson one being that they were spirited away by officers who were determined to prevent mob violence and another is to the effect that their captors carried them off to the woods, where a double lynching took place.

The posse gave immediate pursuit and the negro Jones was captured and shot to death. Later his brother and another, said to have aided the fugitives to escape, were captured. Conflicting reports as to the fate of these two have been received in Jackson one being that they were spirited away by officers who were determined to prevent mob violence and another is to the effect that their captors carried them off to the woods, where a double lynching took place.

The posse gave immediate pursuit and the negro Jones was captured and shot to death. Later his brother and another, said to have aided the fugitives to escape, were captured. Conflicting reports as to the fate of these two have been received in Jackson one being that they were spirited away by officers who were determined to prevent mob violence and another is to the effect that their captors carried them off to the woods, where a double lynching took place.

The posse gave immediate pursuit and the negro Jones was captured and shot to death. Later his brother and another, said to have aided the fugitives to escape, were captured. Conflicting reports as to the fate of these two have been received in Jackson one being that they were spirited away by officers who were determined to prevent mob violence and another is to the effect that their captors carried them off to the woods, where a double lynching took place.

The posse gave immediate pursuit and the negro Jones was captured and shot to death. Later his brother and another, said to have aided the fugitives to escape, were captured. Conflicting reports as to the fate of these two have been received in Jackson one being that they were spirited away by officers who were determined to prevent mob violence and another is to the effect that their captors carried them off to the woods, where a double lynching took place.

The posse gave immediate pursuit and the negro Jones was captured and shot to death. Later his brother and another, said to have aided the fugitives to escape, were captured. Conflicting reports as to the fate of these two have been received in Jackson one being that they were spirited away by officers who were determined to prevent mob violence and another is to the effect that their captors carried them off to the woods, where a double lynching took place.

The posse gave immediate pursuit and the negro Jones was captured and shot to death. Later his brother and another, said to have aided the fugitives to escape, were captured. Conflicting reports as to the fate of these two have been received in Jackson one being that they were spirited away by officers who were determined to prevent mob violence and another is to the effect that their captors carried them off to the woods, where a double lynching took place.

The posse gave immediate pursuit and the negro Jones was captured and shot to death. Later his brother and another, said to have aided the fugitives to escape, were captured. Conflicting reports as to the fate of these two have been received in Jackson one being that they were spirited away by officers who were determined to prevent mob violence and another is to the effect that their captors carried them off to the woods, where a double lynching took place.

The posse gave immediate pursuit and the negro Jones was captured and shot to death. Later his brother and another, said to have aided the fugitives to escape, were captured. Conflicting reports as to the fate of these two have been received in Jackson one being that they were spirited away by officers who were determined to prevent mob violence and another is to the effect that their captors carried them off to the woods, where a double lynching took place.

The posse gave immediate pursuit and the negro Jones was captured and shot to death. Later his brother and another, said to have aided the fugitives to escape, were captured. Conflicting reports as to the fate of these two have been received in Jackson one being that they were spirited away by officers who were determined to prevent mob violence and another is to the effect that their captors carried them off to the woods, where a double lynching took place.